<Key features of this year’s report>

- Centered on the corporate philosophy renewed in April 2026, the report presents the process for achieving sustainable enhancement of corporate value as a coherent narrative structured around “To Be,” “As Is,” and “Gap & How.”
- The CEO Message explains the full scope of the “three-pronged structural reform” led by Kazunori Shimamoto, who assumed office as Representative Director, President & CEO in April 2026, together with his resolve upon taking office and the background and objectives of the CxO structure.
- The report provides an overall picture of the Group’s diverse intellectual capital, including intellectual property, technologies, and expertise, and visualizes and organizes the interrelationships among these assets.
- The report describes the Group’s initiatives to strengthen global governance in FY2025 and explains the background to the establishment of regional headquarters responsible for governance oversight.
- The briefing summary video features CEO Shimamoto and highlights the key features described above.

Nichirei has also released “Nichirei Group Sustainability Report 2026” to provide comprehensive disclosure on the Group’s approach to sustainability, as well as its targets, performance, and specific initiatives.
